Multiple Person Open Water Course Cancellation / No Show Policy

Thank you for enrolling on the Open Water Course

You have signed up to complete your course at a very special price. As such the following terms and conditions apply:

By tendering the deposit for your course you are committing to undertake training on the agreed dates shown above. Should you deviate from these dates and need to reschedule you will be required to pay the full cost of an Open Water Course.

By signing up for the special deal you have agreed to complete the course with a second or third person or a group of four or more people. This means you agree to start and complete the course together. Should there be any deviation from this you will be required to pay the full cost of an Open Water Course.

The special deal affords you four days of training with us. This is usually ample time to complete an Open Water Course. Should you require any further training in order to meet the certification standards you will be required to pay the full cost of an Open Water Course.

Learntodive reserves the right to reschedule courses due to unforeseen circumstances out of our control, including of conditions rendering diving unsafe. Risk assessment controls will determine conditions to dive.

Please note that all bookings and payments are non-refundable and non-transferable. Deposits are valid for 12 months.
